

The Stone Repair Network (SRN) are the leaders of the natural stone community committed to the education of the consumer and fellow members. Through the network of our members, we provide dedication to quality, service and lead the industry with our standards. Our mission is to provide quality natural stone care, restoration and maintenance through a network of qualified natural stone professionals.

Is your natural stone surface damaged or showing its age? Don't replace it – repair it! For nearly a decade we have restored countertops, sinks, tub surrounds, service bars, and many other surfaces damaged by:

- Cracks / Breaks
- Chips / Holes
- Stains / Discolorations
- Gouges / Scratches
- Dullness from long term wear. WHY Choose A SRN Member?

We understand that your kitchen, bath and work surfaces represent a significant investment in your home or business. We know that you want the repairs to be made quickly and professionally with minimal disruption or mess.

- Specially Trained Techs

Our members specialize in restoring, repairing, and refinishing a wide range of natural stone surfaces, including Granite, Marble, Travertine and many other natural stone products from all over the world. The natural stone restoration specialists of the SRN are highly trained and experienced. All work done by SRN members is guaranteed.

- State-of-the-Art Equipment

SRN members are kept up to date on the latest restoration techniques, the use state-of-the-art tools and use the finest materials for repairs.

- Timely Response

We will follow up on your service requests within 72 hours, provide you with realistic estimates and schedules, and make every effort to work quickly and efficiently. We make the extra effort to be timely and customer-friendly.

When you choose SRN members you can be confident that the technicians will be neat, courteous, professional, and fully qualified to do the job with the full support of the natural stone community. It is our mission to provide quality natural stone care, restoration and maintenance through a network of qualified natural stone professionals. We strive to ensure that you are so satisfied with our restoration work that you will recommend us to others for their natural stone repairs.

We also offer scheduled maintenance programs that keep your Natural stone surfaces looking like new.